

*"I have fed you with milk, and not with meat:
for hitherto ye were not able to bear it."*

1 Corinthians 3:2

By this time you ought to be eating meat.

The wise and faithful servant gives the household "meat in due season," becomes a "steward of the mysteries of God," and has his senses "exercised to discern" all parables. Would Jesus rebuke you as he did his disciples: "Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?"

This book feeds meat — not a closed set of mysteries explained, but lessons in how to seek and discover fresh meat on your own. With more than 140 symbols proved from Scripture's own cross-references, it brings the Bible to life.

Come — meet the Bible's symbolic language.

*"For every one that useth milk
is unskilful in the word of righteousness."*
